Drawing on experience in China and elsewhere in Asia, Stuart Hansen oversees operations at Marquee Asset Management, LLC, in Los Angeles. As vice president of Marquee since 2011, he manages both domestic and international real estate investments made on behalf of Drewco Development Corporation, a member of the Drewlo family of companies. Stuart Hansen's focus in the United States involves the recruiting, training, and management of a staff excelling in real estate development and investment opportunities in California and other West Coast states, though the organization has plans for eastern expansion. On the international stage, he emphasizes coordination efforts with Drewco partners throughout China and other Asian countries.

Stuart Hansen studied business at the University of Western Ontario in London, Canada. On his way to graduating with honors with a business administration degree, he regularly earned placement on the dean's list and received such distinctions as the University of Western Ontario Academic Entrance Scholarship and the Richard Ivey Business School Academic Scholarship.
