

Raylene Whitford

Raylene Whitford - Founder of Lovinne Energy

An experienced senior executive in the natural resources field, Raylene Whitford completed a sector-specific master of business administration program in Oil and Gas Management at the Robert Gordon University in Aberdeen, Scotland. In addition to her MBA, Ms. Whitford holds a Bachelor of Commerce with first-class standing from the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Canada, and a Chartered Accountancy designation from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales. Over the course of her career, Raylene Whitford has served as a Manager of the Strategy Group at KPMG in London, and as well as a roughneck/leasehand with Akita Drilling.

Address: London, England

Website: <https://www.cakeresume.com/raylene-whitford>

Email: info@raylenewhitford.com

Raylene Whitford has directed operations at Lovinne Energy since founding the company in 2015. From its headquarters in London, England, her firm specialises in financial management, investment appraisal, operational excellence and fundraising for clients in the upstream oil and gas industry. To find out more please visit www.lovinneenergy.com.

EXPERIENCE

Lovinne Energy
Director

OCT 1, 2015 - PRESENT

EDUCATION

Robert Gordon University
MBA

SEP 1, 2013 - MAY 1, 2015

University of Alberta
Bachelor of Commerce

SEP 1, 2003 - MAY 1, 2008