Since entering the medical profession, Chris Liu, MD, has demonstrated an aptitude for providing and overseeing patient care in a hospital setting. He began preparing for his career as a student at the University of California (UC), Davis, where he earned a bachelor of science with honors in the biological sciences. After subsequently receiving a doctor of medicine from the Medical College of Wisconsin, Dr. Chris Liu returned to the University of California system as an intern and resident at the UC Irvine Medical Center.

Chris Liu, MD, advanced his clinical and supervisory skills over the course of his three years in internship and residency. He obtained his board certification in internal medicine in 2011 and, in the same year, joined the staff of Pacific Hospitalist Associates, where he practiced as a hospitalist at Hoag Hospital in Irvine.

In 2012, Dr. Chris Liu then accepted the position of hospitalist at Kaiser Permanente Medical Center in Vallejo, California to return home to the Bay Area. He became a partner in 2015 and has assumed multiple roles as a hospitalist, from strict inpatient care on the medical floor, to attending to post stroke patients at the Kaiser Foundation Rehabilitation Center, and to teaching and instructing family practice residents on their inpatient rotations.
