

Sudeep Moniz

Petroleum Professional and Columbia University Alumnus

Address: Melville, NY, US

Website: <http://www.sudeepmoniz.com/>

Email: info@sudeepmoniz.com

A petroleum-industry professional with NIC Holding Corporation, Sudeep Moniz draws on over seven years' experience in his work with the Melville, New York-based company. Since joining NIC in 2016, Sudeep Moniz has worked as a trader and has helped the company advance its business activity across multiple sectors.

Sudeep Moniz was previously a junior trader in the Oil Liquids division with Stamford, Connecticut's Noble Group and an analyst with New York's Morgan Stanley Smith Barney. He holds a bachelor of science in operations research with a focus on engineering management systems and a minor in economics from Columbia University. While in university, he served as president of the Columbia International Relations Council and helped the organization earn the 2009 Impact Award. He also holds an international baccalaureate diploma from Li Po Chun United World College in Hong Kong.

In his free time, he enjoys playing squash, playing and watching soccer and following college basketball.

EXPERIENCE

Trader

Apr 1, 2016 - Present

NIC Holding Corporation

Noble Group

May 1, 2011 - Dec 1, 2015

Junior Trader

Morgan Stanley Smith Barney

Jun 1, 2010 - Apr 1, 2011

Analyst

EDUCATION

Columbia University

Aug 1, 2006 - May 1, 2010

BS

Operations Research - Engineering Management Systems