Chad Faglier has served as a project manager with a design-and-build company in Charlotte, North Carolina, for the last eight years. In that capacity, Chad Faglier is responsible for managing many vendors, as well as the scheduling and on-site supervision of both commercial and residential projects. Over the course of his career, he has received multiple honors and awards for green construction practices and top-quality design, such as the Charlotte Business Journal's Green Business Award. Chad Faglier also holds several important certifications and licenses, including certification as a hydrostop installer and unlimited general contracting licenses in North Carolina and South Carolina.

Mr. Faglier studied at Guilford Technical Community College on the Greensboro campus in North Carolina. Away from work, he enjoys leading a physically active lifestyle. Some of his favorite pastimes include snowboarding, surfing, and working on vintage cars and motorcycles. In his free time, he also likes watching Carolina Panthers football and Carolina Tar Heels football and basketball games.
