

Ronald Newman (Milestone)

Experienced Construction Professional and Business Leader Ron Newman

Since 2005, Ronald Newman has served as a managing member at Milestone Investment Properties, LLC, in Puyallup, Washington. A few of his recent achievements with Milestone include Marastone Village, a collection of 28 town home units in Eatonville, and Greenwood Heights, and a 21 town home development in Bonney Lake. Active projects include Puyallup's Wynnstone Townhomes and the Stonebrook Apartments project in Tumwater. Ronald Newman previously spent 15 years in leadership roles at Norstar Construction, a commercial construction firm based in Sumner, Washington. Prior to launching his career as a construction professional and business leader, he studied marketing and estimating, then accounting at Pierce College.

Beyond his professional activities, Mr. Newman spends time contributing to a number of charitable organizations. He is particularly supportive of the Edgewood Bible Church and Seattle's Union Gospel Mission. A few of his other philanthropic interests include the Tacoma Rescue Mission and World Vision.
