NEIRG President Nicholas Giacomakis Drives the Firm's Success

Nicholas Giacomakis began his career in financial services nearly 30 years ago, as a financial representative for PFS Investments. He gained valuable experience in such financial areas as asset allocation, contract negotiation, and strategic financial planning. Nicholas Giacomakis leveraged his knowledge of financial advising to found his current firm, New England Investment and Retirement Group (NEIRG), in 1995. As president and founder, Mr. Giacomakis has grown NEIRG to include 14 members and developed it into a recognized entity that creates corporate group benefits and personal financial planning solutions for companies and individuals throughout New England.
