JMK5 Holdings Owner Jerome Karam

An attorney with his own private practice in Friendswood, Texas, Jerome Karam concentrates on business disputes and legal claims that commonly arise during the inception and operation of companies. He directs multiple business operations in his own right as head of the Friendswood real estate development firm JMK5 Holdings. Jerome Karam's responsibilities with JMK5 include buying, selling, renovating, and managing a range of commercial and residential properties.

Over the years, Jerome Karam has developed multifamily residential complexes such as Highway 28 Condominiums in Alexandria, Louisiana, and mixed-use buildings such as JMK5 Lake Charles, in Lake Charles, Louisiana. He has also acquired large retail properties, such as the Mall of the Mainland in Texas City, Texas. Mr. Karam recently opened a World Gym in Texas City that became the biggest facility of its kind in the state. The World Gym organization named the Texas City gym the "Best New World Gym" of 2015.
