Based in Beverly Hills, California, Michael "Mike" Ladge is a financial expert who offers a comprehensive approach to wealth advising. A registered financial advisor with the NFL Player's Association, Mike Ladge has experience working with NFL pro-bowlers and entertainers. He understands the capricious nature of his clients' professions and, therefore, works to protect their careers.

Mike Ladge also develops and implements customized strategies for tax mitigation and long-term investments while helping clients manage cash flow and undertake sound retirement planning. He has been named one of Worth Magazine's Top 100 Wealth Advisors for four consecutive years, and is a five-star wealth manager according to Los Angeles Magazine.

Prior to launching his career, Mike Ladge studied finance and statistics at Syracuse University, where he graduated with a bachelor of science. Later, he studied finance and entrepreneurship at The Anderson School at UCLA, graduating with an MBA. He is also a former professional racquetball player and coach, as well as a four-time national champion.
