

Michael Vasaturo

Michael Vasaturo, Connecticut-Based Financial Executive

Michael Vasaturo is an accomplished senior executive in Connecticut with a strong background in financial accountability. Mike Vasaturo has been with New Haven Terminal in various capacities for nearly 15 years, rising from treasurer to his current role as chief financial officer over the course of his employment.

Website: <https://plus.google.com/105235800362936384751>

Email: info@michaelvasaturo.com

Mr. Vasaturo also held a number of executive roles at Logistec USA, where he worked for more than a decade. He oversaw five ports throughout the East Coast and served as chairman for the Connecticut Maritime Coalition trade association. In addition to his various management roles at Logistec USA and New Haven Terminal, he possesses over a decade of experience at Ernst & Young, where as an auditor he was closely involved in corporate outreach projects for the Special Olympics.

A husband and father of three, Michael Vasaturo remains actively involved in charity events such as the Donate Life Bowl-a-thon and the annual Children's Miracle Network fundraiser. He also belongs to a number of civic organizations including the Knights of Columbus, Sons of Italy, and the Adriatic Marchegian Club.

EXPERIENCE

Logistec USA, Inc
Vice President

1996 TO 2007

new haven terminal, Inc
vice president

1989

EDUCATION

saint johns university
bs

1975 TO 1979

SKILLS

vice president