Clark Lare - Columbia, Maryland, Technology Service Provider

Well established as a Columbia, Maryland, entrepreneur, Clark Lare is cofounder of Quotient, Inc, which provides clients with innovative, customized digital services. His firm engages with commercial and government clients in offering comprehensive technology based solutions. Since establishing the company in the late 1990s, Clark Lare along with other members of the Executive Team have consistently expanded the company's scope of services to include a diverse range of IT and federal digital services. Clark has extensive experience in developing strategic relationships with federal civilian and defense communities in projects that encompass cyber security, content management, and application and Web development.

Mr. Lare and Quotient's corporate team maintain a commitment to supporting charities that foster healthy, safe communities, such as the Mt. Washington Pediatric Hospital and Boy and Girl Scouts of America. They also contribute to a number of organizations that support the families of service members who have sacrificed their lives for their country.

Mr. Lare maintains a strong profile in the local community and coaches the Roland Park Baseball Rangers and the 12-and-under LTRC Blue Knights football team. In 2015, Clark Lare's football team achieved an undefeated record and won the Upper Chesapeake Youth Football League Championship.
