

Christopher Lane Attorney North Carolina

Avid Runner and Dedicated North Carolina Attorney Christopher Lane

A graduate of Wake Forest University School of Law, Christopher Lane is an experienced attorney in North Carolina. Admitted to practice in the State Courts of North Carolina, Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and Western, Middle, and Eastern District Federal Courts, he has experience handling legal matters involving such areas as breach of contract, workers compensation and bankruptcy. Over the years, Chris Lane has worked for such firms as McElwee Firm, PLLC, and Womble, Carlyle, Sandridge & Rice. Currently, he leverages his legal expertise to provide high-quality family law, personal injury, and workers compensation services to clients at his own solo practice.

Outside of leading his private practice, Chris Lane is an avid runner. He frequently runs with the Twin City Track Club and trains five days a week for marathons. Since 2002, he has participated in and completed 61 full marathons in 35 states, including Virginia, Florida, Ohio, and Indiana. In addition to running, he enjoys skiing and golfing. He is also a member of Clemmons United Methodist Church.
