A school psychologist with Cumberland Therapies in Ansonia, Ohio, Rebecca Lowry formerly served for four years as the superintendent of Westmoreland County Public Schools (WCPS) in Montross, Virginia. Her achievements with WCPS include creating a countywide committee to develop criteria for staff evaluations as well as a broad spectrum of strategic departmental goals. Rebecca Lowry also boosted student report card performance through a program of state testing and series of general improvement plans. She came to WCPS in 2011 after holding associate and assistant superintendent roles with Dayton Public Schools in Dayton, Ohio, and Chichester School District in Boothwyn, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Lowry received her PhD in educational leadership with an emphasis on student personnel management from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in Blacksburg, Virginia. She also holds a BA in music education from Bluefield College in Bluefield, Virginia, and both an MS in school psychology and an education specialist degree in school psychology/special education from Radford University in Radford, Virginia.
