

Dr Paul Bolger

Dr. Paul Bolger, Physician to Illinois and Iowa Patients

Dr. Paul Bolger is a busy man. He owns and operates a weight-loss clinic and a medical aesthetics and wellness clinic in Davenport, Iowa. He advises attorneys in need of help interpreting medical charts and other key documents for disability and malpractice cases. Dr. Paul Bolger also works in an advisory capacity with UnityPoint Health in Rock Island, where he educates physicians on matters related to documentation compliance and collaborates with hospitals in their efforts to enhance patient care.

Active in the nonprofit sphere, Paul Bolger, MD, supports a number of charitable organizations. He has participated in events sponsored by the Trinity Health Foundation, and he donates to the Wounded Warrior Foundation, to a local Vietnamese Buddhist temple as well as the Syrian American Medical Society.

When not working, Dr. Bolger enjoys spending time with his wife, who is originally from Venezuela. She cooks a variety of authentic Venezuelan foods that she learned to prepare from her grandmother.
