Michael Bonislawski is a Las Vegas-based DJ with varied experience in the entertainment industry. While attending Wilmington, Delaware's Concord High School, Michael Bonislawski participated in the school's drama league and worked at a local dinner theater. Upon graduating, he exercised his comedic chops at various improv shows throughout Atlantic City and earned lead acting roles in the films Desert Cemetery and Vigilante, as well as smaller roles in Melrose Place and Oceans 11. He also starred in theatrical performances of Rebel Without a Cause, Romeo and Juliet, and Guys and Dolls.

In the late 1990s, Michael Bonislawski began establishing himself as a well-known DJ throughout Las Vegas. He was affectionately referred to as All Night Mike for his energetic performing style and was voted Best of Las Vegas by the Las Vegas Review-Journal in multiple years. In addition to various casinos throughout the city, he once performed at the Billboard Music Awards as well as at Times Square in New York City.

Mr. Bonislawski completed management training at Miami, Florida's Johnson & Wales University and, while living in Florida, supported the Kissimmee Community Hope Center. In his free time, he enjoys traveling and playing golf.
