

Wesley Van Johnson

Dr. Wesley Van Johnson - Ordained Minister and Preacher of the Gospel

Dr. Wesley Van Johnson grew up in poverty as the 12th of 13 children in Dunnville, Ontario, Canada. He learned to look to God as refuge from the judgment of others, and his faith drew the attention of Rev. A. A. Allen, who believed that the boy would one day carry the Gospel across the globe. Dr. Wesley Van Johnson proceeded to answer the call of the ministry and attended the University of California and the School of Bible Theology Seminary, where he earned a master's degree in counseling and a doctorate in divinity, respectively.

Ordained a bishop of the Pentecostal Church of God of Canada, Dr. Wesley Van Johnson serves as diocesan bishop of western Canada. He resides in London, England, and is an active member of the Victorious Pentecostal Assembly, where he collaborates with Pastor Alex Omokudu. In addition, Dr. Van Johnson has traveled across Africa, England, the United States, and Canada, planting churches in many communities in need.

Dedicated to healing God's people and bringing them deliverance, Dr. Wesley Van Johnson also ministers in social services and rehabilitation. He carries the Gospel of Jesus Christ to those in prisons and hospitals, and he brings clothing and food to people in need.
