Glenn J. Marie, DDS, Provides Dental Care for Kids with Special Needs

In private practice in the Staten Island, New York-based Dentistry for Children for over two and a half decades, Glenn J. Marie, DDS, focuses on addressing the oral health needs of children with autism, Down syndrome, and other conditions necessitating special care. Glenn J. Marie, DDS, and his staff combine a welcoming office atmosphere with a high level of professional care to help ensure that each appointment is a positive experience for both parents and their children.

Beyond attending to the needs of his regular patients, Glenn J. Marie, DDS, provides pro bono dental treatment to children from disadvantaged families that lack the resources to visit a private practitioner. He also donates to the Adrianna Vesce College Fund and local youth baseball teams in both the Mid-Island Little League and Great Kills Little League.

Dr. Marie earned his DDS from the New York University College of Dentistry. Along with maintaining membership in the American Dental Association, he belongs to several other professional organizations, including the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry and Second District Dental Society.
