Alan S. Cohn leads AbsoluteCARE of Singer Island, Florida, as its president and CEO. The company oversees a patient-centered ambulatory intensive care unit that provides treatment to people with chronic illnesses. In fact, since its establishment in 1999, it has helped over 5,000 patients while achieving a strong treatment outcome record. Complementing his commitment to AbsoluteCARE, Alan S. Cohn supports Avesis Incorporated, where he formerly served as the CEO, in his capacity as a strategic partnership consultant.

Before entering the health care industry, Alan S. Cohn enrolled at The George Washington University, where he served as a student representative to the Board of Trustees and the chairman of the Program Board while studying for his BA in public affairs. He subsequently received his JD from the University of Baltimore School of Law.

For recreation, Mr. Cohn enjoys domestic and international travel. To stay active, he skis and otherwise works out regularly.
