Rafi Toledano, who entered the real estate industry in 2009, during a time of economic crisis, was driven by ambition and determination to succeed. He found success at Weissman Real Estate - which was a small firm focused only on residential rentals and sales.

Rafi Toledano is the founder and president of Brookhill Properties. Brookhill Properties has become one of New York City's top landlords, acquiring a $97 million portfolio in the East Village in 2015. The company focuses on buildings in the East Village with five additional purchase deals. In order to make their East Village building a top destination, Toledano and his team rely on personalized service that caters to a worldwide clientele- something that has always been central to their mission.

Successful individuals often achieve great things through their determination and hard work. Rafi Toledano is an excellent example of this! His successful streak has not only earned him wealth and privilege, but it has also given him the opportunity to help others. He is currently involved in many philanthropic endeavors, including donation work, and helping the less fortunate.

Rafi Toledano also supports and maintains the Creative Little Garden- an oasis of tranquility in the East Village where guests can just sit down and relax. In addition, Teens-at-Risk are a pandemic problem and NY isn't immune to it. Project Extreme is an organization that helps teens who have negative outcomes from their lives. This organization is directly supported by Rafi Toledano.

EXPERIENCE

Trinity's Services and Food for the Homeless

Philanthropist

Trinity's Services and Food for the Homeless provides warm, nutritious meals to the homeless population living around Tompkins Square Park in New York City. Rafi Toledano is proud to support this amazing organization that doesn't discriminate regarding whom it serves. By helping all of those in the East Village community, the entire area becomes a better place to live and work in.

The Creative Little Garden

Philanthropist

The Creative Little Garden is a community garden in the East Village built 38 years ago. It provides a peaceful, nature-filled place for East Village residents and visitors to relax and enjoy the environment. The community garden features meeting spots for residents, as well as plenty of space to sit down and work on plants! Plant materials are taken care of by the community, with Toledano's team contributing regularly to maintain it!
