- Address: For passengers who require in-person help with their travel arrangements, the WestJet Airlines Santo Domingo Office provides a handy central location. Flight booking and modification, ticketing inquiries, luggage problems, and information on travel limitations and entrance requirements—particularly for tourists heading to Canada—are among the services offered at the office. Well-informed employees are on hand to answer inquiries, help with special travel requirements, and support clients with any problems prior to or following their trip. Enhancing the travel experience for WestJet passengers in the area is the goal of the Santo Domingo office.
