As managing partner of the BDK Consulting Group, Mark H. Dunaway works with client company leaders to develop goal-focused strategies and optimize financial operations. He serves a diverse group of executives that share a desire to strengthen accountability, improve inefficiencies, and prepare for the company's next steps. Mark H. Dunaway draws on particular experience in realignment and exit-strategy development for middle-market companies, which also rely on his expertise in risk management.

Mark H. Dunaway comes to this role following service in a similar capacity as managing partner for The Atlantic Partners. He had previously served as CEO, chair, and board member of Verso Technologies, which he led from a severe downturn state with substantial debt to an organized liquidation.

Mr. Dunaway accepted this challenge having led early growth as CEO and chair of Composite Materials Technology, which he strengthened with two acquisitions and an international alliance. An experienced investor at the time, he had already led the IPO of a startup wireless network provider and sold four additional startups as the owner of Dunaway Enterprises.
