As the Director of Cultural Programming for Kimpton Hotels and Restaurants, Justin Litterelle performs a wide range of brand development and marketing functions for Kimpton's various lifestyle outlets. Justin Litterelle's specific responsibilities range from designing and developing new venues to managing the marketing and operations of existing properties.

Before joining the Kimpton team in 2015, he lived and worked for four years in Macau, China, serving tenures as the Assistant Vice President of Marketing for the Galaxy Entertainment Group and Director of Entertainment for Melco Crown Entertainment. Mr. Litterelle relocated to Macau to build upon nearly seven years of experience as a senior manager of casino and entertainment initiatives in both Las Vegas and Atlantic City.

When he is not working, Justin Litterelle enjoys testing his strategic intellect as an avid backgammon player. He also enjoys the outdoors and regularly snowboards and plays soccer.
