

Michael Corsi

Active in Nonprofit Giving

Address: New York City, NY, US
Website: <http://www.michael-corsi.com/>
Email: info@michaelcorsi.com

A finance executive active in philanthropy, Michael Corsi personally funded a scholarship that provides $50,000 in education support to students demonstrating financial need. Besides his education-focused giving, he has sponsored Matt's Promise, a nonprofit dedicated to helping young people challenged by terminal illness. Moreover, Michael Corsi has given generously to such worthy military-focused nonprofits as the Wounded Warrior Project.

In his professional life, Michael Corsi co-heads securitized product sales as managing director with KeyBanc. Before accepting his present position, he worked for RBC Capital Markets as managing director of institutional sales. His background further includes periods in senior executive roles at such firms as the Knight Capital Group, MF Global, and Deutsche Bank.

Throughout his career, Mr. Corsi has contributed substantively to his field by publishing work on finance subjects. For example, he co-wrote two chapters in Frank J. Fabozzi's Handbook of Mortgage-Backed Securities.

Before establishing himself, Mr. Corsi earned his bachelor of science in finance from Providence College in Rhode Island.

EXPERIENCE

KeyBanc Capital Markets

Apr 1, 2016 - Present

Managing Director Co-head of Securitized Products Sales

EDUCATION

Providence College

Jan 1, 1999 - Jan 1, 2002

BS