

John C. Chiu MD

John C. Chiu, MD - An Experienced California Spine Surgeon

John C. Chiu, MD, an accomplished neurosurgeon, treats people through his private practice in Thousand Oaks, California. Called California Spine Institute Medical Center, Inc., the practice relies on innovative technologies, minimally invasive surgical techniques, and physical therapy to deliver a high professional standard of spine care. Complementing his dedication to spine surgery, John C. Chiu, MD, is a long-time practitioner of the martial arts, having achieved grand master level in several styles. Recently, the International Martial Arts Hall of Fame honored him with its Martial Arts Living Legend Award.

Before establishing himself in neurosurgery, Dr. Chiu studied at Baylor College of Medicine, from which he earned his doctor of medicine. Continuing his education, he underwent his surgical internship through Brooklyn Hospital and his neurosurgery residency at the Mayo Clinic. He is a founding chairman of the American Academy of Minimally Invasive Spinal Surgery and Medicine.

Prospective patients can read about John C. Chiu, MD, and his medical center by logging on to its website at spinecenter.com.

Address: Thousand Oaks, California, US

Website: <https://about.me/JohnCChiuMD>

Email: info@johncchiumd.com

EXPERIENCE

California Spine Institute Medical Center
President

EDUCATION

Southern Methodist University
Bachelor's degree in Pre-Med

JAN 1957 - JAN 1959

Baylor University
MD

1963