Troy McQuagge is a businessman and entrepreneur that was born in Panama City, Florida. He completed his college education at the University of Central Florida. He currently works for US Health Advisors. Before beginning his career at US Health Advisors, McQuagge worked as a health insurance salesman. He has worked for Allstate Insurance and UICI/ Health Markets where he gained for 30 years of experience working in sales positions.

Troy McQuagge began working at US Health Advisors in 2010 as the President and CEO of the company. The company gives McQuagge credit for the growth the company has experienced since he became the President of US Health Advisors in 2010. Since Troy McQuagge became the CEO and president of US Health Advisors the company has increased by $1 billion, and it is still growing. He cares about his employees and creates a thriving working environment. Everyone that is employed by US Health Advisors abides by HOPE. HOPE stands for Helping Other People Everyday. They work to make a difference in the lives of all of the people that they have the pleasure of doing business with. McQuagge has created programs that go hand in hand with HOPE.

The first Hope program helped to rebuild New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina. After their work during in New Orleans, they gave out shoes, clothes, formula, and other supplies to The Crisis Nursery that was worth thousands of dollars. Troy McQuagge has stood true to his mission of HOPE since the day he implemented it. When they find a need, they make sure to take care of that need. US Health Advisors has helped thousands of families in need. They offer HOPE and insurance, but they make sure that everyone has their basic needs through selfless service. His HOPE efforts have made US Health on of the most sought insurance companies. He has gained a very positive representation for getting the job done.

Troy McQuagge has received CEO of the year award for 2016 and 2017. US Health Advisors have experienced growth for five years straight due to his hard work, dedication, and commitment to excellence. McQuagge gives every US Health Advisors employee credit for the success that the company has had. He believes that he would not be able to accomplish all of the growth he has encountered without the help of US Health employees. Although, McQuagge is more than qualified for the position as president and CEO his character has also qualified him. His love for his employees has allowed the company to flourish. Every employee feels as if they are important and they matter to the company's success. His planned to make US Health great, but he has done much more.
