Emblez Longoria, Senior Security Consultant

With over two decades' experience in security and investigations, Emblez Longoria serves as senior security consultant for Verizon Communications' corporate headquarters in Basking Ridge, New Jersey. Working for Verizon since 2004, his duties include protecting company assets, preventing crime and theft, and facilitating a safe work environment. Emblez Longoria takes an enterprise-wide approach to delivering efficient and effective security protocols by streamlining communication and developing education programs. He has also served on the professional certification board for ASIS International, a worldwide organization that provides certification programs to those who work in security and loss prevention.

Prior to his employment at Verizon, Mr. Longoria was a senior trooper for the New Jersey State Police. He graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor of science from Rosemont College and later earned a master of science in business management. He has earned professional certifications from various security organizations including Certified Security Trainer, Certified Protection Professional, and Personal Protection Specialist.

Outside of work, Emblez Longoria enjoys living a physically active lifestyle. Some of his favorite outdoor activities include hiking, backpacking, and fishing.
